DICK EVANS

“Dick Evans’ photo of the little girl in front of Mel Waters mural captures a supreme innocence, moment in time...” “This mural and the others photographed by Dick, shows a vibrant community that is thriving and the pulse of the Mission District. To read his book and visit the people, colors and images is a journey into what the Mission’s culture once stood for and what it is evolving into.”

-CARLOS SANTANA

San Francisco's colorful Mission district explored in gorgeous imagery

"The Mission" is more than an attractive coffee table book. Evans captures the Mission as a cultural hub, with the murals, mercados, restaurants, music and public events such as Carnivale brilliantly portrayed.
